ANNIVERSARY A SUCCESS.

The congregation of Metropolitan Methodist church celebrated their fifth anniversary last night with a banquet from 5 to 8 p.m. in the decorated basement and a concert in the auditorium after 8 p.m. The choir was occupied by the pastor Rev. R. H. Leitch.

Principal Riddell brought greetings from Alberta College. Though he related some of his experiences in Western Canada since coming to Winnipeg 25 years ago and to Edmonton 10 years ago, the theme of his address was a looking forward rather than a looking backward.

In an eloquent address he predicted great things for the city, for the church and for the state and was most optimistic in regard to the future.

In 20 years Winnipeg has grown from a city of 45,000 to one of 250,000 and he predicted that in the next few years Edmonton would grow and do likewise.

On behalf of Knox church and the other sister churches of the south side fraternal greetings were expressed by E. McDougall in his usual able manner.

Rev. Thos. Powell, chairman of the district, brought greetings from the sister churches on the north side of the river. "An anniversary," said he, "means a retrospect as well as a prospect." Ten years ago there were only two Methodist churches in the twin cities and now there are almost a dozen in Greater Edmonton. It is up to the church of the living God to act so that dreams of the future may come true.

Prof. Hlad replied on behalf of the church to the greetings of the previous speakers. He said that the churches of the city stand together in the task of carrying forward the achievements of the past. He also emphasized the power of the press, the schools and the colleges and the university of the city. The same makers and the workers at the industries of the city also have their work to do in the development of the future. The church must also take up its burden of the future. Each citizen in his own sphere was urged to do his part in their sphere of influence.

The program included besides the excellent vocal selections, several musical numbers on the pipe organ by Mr. Charlesworth, the organist of the church.

An excellent organ solo was also given by T. Smith, a local soloist whomaker, who played an impressive of his own composition. His playing showed that he has much musical talent.

The board of managers reported that the anniversary services had been a financial success. The total indebtedness of the pipe organ has been provided for. The newly installed organ hence adds greatly to the sanctity of the church without in the least adding to the liabilities of the church.

THREAT EXPECTED TONIGHT.

Budapest. Residents, however, in taking certain military measures with a view to being prepared for eventualities. The war minister has issued an order to all the army corps to the effect that the half of the contingent which was to have been demobilized on Nov. 14th, is to be retained with the colors until further orders.

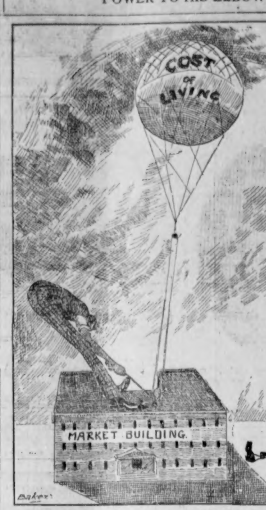

No less some of importance has been received from Adrianople. Reports of the allies have the Turkish troops in disarray.

A Vivid Picture of Turkish War.

Paris, Nov. 11.—A staff correspondent of the Temps, Jean Rodex, who has reached Constantinople from the Balkans, sends a vivid picture of the Turkish army. He says: "We have witnessed the failure of the Turk as a soldier. We have seen him dying of hunger, worn out by fatigue, wrecked by suffering and running in the open having abandoned his place in the combat."

"He never seen a more poignant picture of human distress than that presented by these unhappy men, thrown into one of the most terrible wars in history, without food, without medical attention, almost without shelter, almost without arms. And at last, I saw a soldier, whose right hand had been severed, held out to me, begging for medical help. The bleeding stump around which he had tied a piece of towel.

Lines of Famished Men.

"I saw long lines of famished men who came to our tent begging for a crumb of bread and staggering away without a complaint which told us had none to give. I saw a thousand wounded leaving a trail of blood as they dragged themselves towards Thessalonica. I saw hundreds of others fall by the wayside dying from wounds and fatigue."

An Image of Inferno.

"I never saw such an image of Inferno. One of the most miserable of the wanderers succeeded in getting into a house where we were staying, drenched to the skin and yet shivering. 'Take all my money,' he said, 'if you will,' he cried, 'but I beg of you to give me some bread."

"I questioned him. He said he came from Asia Minor and had not eaten for eight days. I gave him a slice of bread and a chocolate tablet, and he went away to join the remnants of the retreating army of which this was the end."

Thus did the Turkish soldier appear to me. He seemed to have no understanding of the great drama in which he was participating. But his infinite misery and his horrible animal distress were enough to break one's heart. I do not know whether the accusations of a massacre are exact, but so far as I have observed I can affirm that no army in the world under such frightful conditions would have been more moderate, more docile."

LETTER CARRIERS ASK FOR BETTER CONDITIONS

Deputation From Letter Carriers' Association Presents Resolutions to Postmaster General.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster general, received a deputation representing the Letter Carriers' association, when a number of important resolutions asking for the betterment of the conditions on behalf of the letter carriers in Canada were presented to the minister. The postmaster general went into the different matters broached with the deputation.

The first resolution presented dealt with the establishment of an eight-hour day for the letter carriers in Canada. Mr. Pelletier was favorable to this resolution, and it was the letter carriers own fault if they worked more than eight hours. He also promised to consider carefully the resolution requesting pay during sickness.

The deputation pointed out that in Great Britain letter carriers received full pay for six months, and half pay for six months during sickness, and suggested this as a basis for a system in the Dominion.

The next resolution was one requesting the Saturday half holiday in the months of June, July and August. The postmaster said he did not think there would be much difficulty in regard to this, and he promised to consider the matter.

Resolutions embodying an increase in the wages and dealing with the fixing of the reasonable limits for the load each man is expected to carry were also presented. It was pointed out that the carriers at present have to take loads of mail ranging from 25 to 150 pounds in weight.

A large addition to the industrial activity of the city should follow the opening this fall of the new packing plant being erected by P. Burns & Co. at North Edmonton. Very rapid progress has been made, with the building of the plant during the past three months, and the huge building is now practically complete. It will be ready to receive its first load of meat in about six weeks and shortly afterwards it will be ready for operation. In fact, though the roof is not yet in, in large part of the machinery is already in the building on the lower floors.

To Cost About $250,000.
The new plant stands on the east side of the C. N. R. and is a P. P. trucker just north of the exhibition grounds. Altogether the triangular property consists of forty acres. The main building or packing plant proper, occupies a central position and is surrounded by the necessary buildings such as the ice house, the engine house, the barn, corral, etc. The main building occupies an area of 113 feet by 113 feet.

It is six stories high and is a brick structure with concrete foundations. The floors are of concrete. The power house, which measures 125x35 feet, will be equipped with engines producing 400 horse power. The complete plant will cost about $250,000.

Firm Does Own Building.
P. Burns & Co. have their own works department and not only design their plants to suit their own requirements, but to erect their own buildings and thus have control of every detail in the structure. The superintendent of construction is J. Woodard, who has been with the firm for a number of years directing the construction of Burns & Co. buildings.

A vast quantity of material has been used in the construction of the plant and during the time it has been under construction the plant has been way car loads of cement, brick and timber have been arriving almost daily, being run right on to the ground over the spur track connecting with the main line. Over a million larch have been used.

Handle 200 Pcs Per Day.
The plant is designed to handle 200 head of cattle per day but it will not be put into full operation right away. At the start about 300 head per week will probably be dealt with. The company intends making Edmonton one of its chief gathering and distributing points for the west and the product of the new plant will serve to supply a large number of towns in Northern Alberta.

A Well Ordered Plant.
Everything in the plant is so arranged as to give the utmost facility in dealing with the meat. The building takes place on the top floor and a carefully designed system of chutes distributes the various parts of the carcasses to the special departments on the various floors. The hides are stored in the basement, but between the top floor and the basement the meat will be cut and trimmed and the various by-products of lard and sausage, etc., manufactured. All the material for weighing the cattle and checking the shipments will register in the office so that it will be impossible for mistakes to occur in the departments. It is the intention of the company, a little later, to turn out from the present plant, polished meats, hams, etc., and the plant is being perly equipped for dealing with the products of the trade.

Most Modern Building.
The building of the new Edmonton plant is a striking indication of the power and enterprise of the Burns company. Formerly a cattle dealer, the Burns company has since 1910 and now turns packing plants out of the west, being established in all the chief cities. With every town of any size has its P. Burns plant. The Edmonton plant is the latest and most up-to-date branch of the P. Burns concern, and by its huge output will add a considerable quota to the business of the city.

When you wear this cap

you have got the best. It means more than you'd think, for caps that are common-made never look otherwise.

Lots of occasions when a cap is the right thing to wear, when a hat just doesn't seem to fill the bill, somehow.

Eastern Brand caps give that air of distinction that ordinary caps just fall short of. They look well on you, because they are made really right.

Look for the Eastern Brand trade-mark. That's the main thing!

Massey-Harris Co. To Build Big Warehouse on Sixth St.

Implement Company Pays $84,000 Cash for Four Lots, Corner of Peace Avenue and Sixth Street—Will Erect Great Warehouse, One of the Largest in the Dominion.

The sum of $84,000 in cash has just been paid by the Massey-Harris company for a site for a new warehouse on the corner of Peace Avenue and Sixth Street. The property consists of four lots, Nos. 159, 176, 177 and 178 in block 6, Hudson's Bay reserve.

This announcement was made to the public yesterday by the Massey-Harris company, who sold the property to the Massey-Harris company and the transaction is confirmed by Herbert Haskins, the local manager of the Massey-Harris firm.

Selected by President.

Sir Malcolm Jones, the president of the big implement firm, was in the city two or three weeks ago looking over the city with the idea of selecting the best site available for a wholesale distributing business. The ground site was selected after careful consideration, as being centrally situated between the depot of the C. N. R. on First, G. T. P. on McDougall and the C. P. R. at Sixth street.

Erect Mammoth Warehouse.

The Massey-Harris firm is in correspondence with architects and contractors in regard to the building they propose to erect on the property. While the details are not yet arranged, it is likely that the firm will erect on the site a mammoth distributing house, covering a floor space of 200x150 and five or six stories high. The firm intends to have a spur track laid right to the building and the office, storage and trucking will be practically under one roof. This will mean a great deal in facilitating the dispatch of their orders.

The warehouse will be one of the largest in Western Canada. It is the Dominion. Construction will be commenced, it is expected, next spring. From this warehouse the great implement concern will distribute its machines over a large area of Western Canada.

Extends Warehouse Area.

Not only does the announcement of the location here of this warehouse emphasize the tendency of big firms to establish their principal distributing points for the west in this city, but it indicates a large extension of the city area known as warehouse property. While up to the present the activity is warehouse in the judgment of such an experienced man as the president of the Massey-Harris company, that the property as far west as the C. P. R. depot is likely to be required during the next few years for wholesale business.

The transaction, involving the purchase of $84,000 in cash, is probably the largest cash transaction in realty circles for some little time past.

AS DEFEATED IN COMMITTEE ON HOME RULE BILL

ROYAL GEORGE ABANDONED TO UNDERWRITERS

Aquith Government Fails to Carry Motion to Consider the Bill.
UNIONISTS ARE WILDLY EXCITED OVER THE VOTE
Followers of Wm. O'Brien Withdraw From House, Thus Embarrassing Government.

London, Nov. 11.—The government was defeated today by a vote of 228 against 226 in the committee on the home rule bill.

A motion by Premier Asquith for consideration of the bill was adjourned.

The House immediately adjourned on motion of Premier Asquith, who went into conference with all the available ministers.

The defeat caused the wildest enthusiasm among the Unionists.

The followers of Wm. O'Brien only this morning announced their intention of withdrawing from the house during the proceedings of the committee on the financial clauses of the bill.

The government is considering its position in view of the adverse vote in committee.

The cabinet does not necessarily have to resign and is unlikely to do so in face of the international crisis.

The division was a snap one on the financial provisions of the home rule bill.

Sir Frederick Banbury, a Unionist member for the city of London, moved an amendment providing that the total payment from the imperial exchequer to the home rule government should not exceed £12,500,000 exclusive of the amount received from Irish taxation, and having regard to the amount saved in the Irish administration by the transfer of certain services to the control of the Irish government.

There has been considerable opposition by members on the ministerial side of the house to the financial provisions of the home rule bill. Some seventy Liberal members have given voice to their objection to the bill, and the government has been obliged to enable the Irish parliament to introduce protection.

Without Germany's Aid She Is Helpless—Press of Great Britain and United States Applaud Sentiments Expressed by Premier Asquith.

New York, Nov. 11.—The American, commenting on Premier Asquith's Mansion house speech, says:—

"It is a long time since England has issued a clearer, firmer note than this. The common justice joins with the common sense of the Christian world in endorsing Premier Asquith's fine, brave speech at the lord mayor's inaugural banquet."

"England could do nothing better to advance her repute and respect in universal public opinion than standing resolutely for the Aquiliferian sentiment."

"The English-speaking race all over the world are in full and hearty sympathy with the magnificent battle of the British allies. No braver battle was ever fought in a better cause—and the British victories are the threat of Constantinople are being crushed by the British victories throughout the whole realm of civilization. The Bulgarian regiments carry the hope of Christianity."

Amused at suggestion.

"The Christian world, which has for a quarter of a century been surrounded at the apathy of Christian Europe toward the Turkish atrocities, is now enmeshed at the bare suggestion of interference by the great powers with the victors at Adrianople and Salonika and Thessalonika. If these suggestions should lead the allies in the Balkan war since the crusades amendment would give place to widespread indignation."

"It would ill-become England to join in this selfish and cruel interference. And those who speak the English tongue are of one mind in the
